DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings, filed on 03/26/2002, are objected to because of the following reasons:

The character of lines, numbers and letters of figures 1, 2A, 2B and 3-10 are not uniform.

The corrected drawings are required.

Specification

2. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any other errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3, 11 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Merli et al. (U.S. Patent 6,088,141).

Regarding claims 1-3, 11 and 17, Merli et al. disclose (in figure 1a) a method and an apparatus of a switch for directing optical signals in a telecommunications network (100) comprising an optical backplane having a first optical path (112) along which the optical signals flow in a first direction and at least a second optical path (114) along which optical signals flow in a second direction (column 2, lines 43-52); N interfaces, where N is greater than or equal to 2 and is an integer, each interface (102-108) in optical communication with the network (116), each interface (102-108) receiving optical signals from and transferring optical signals to the network (116), each interface (102-108) in optical communication with the first path (112) and second path (114), each interface (102-108) sending optical signals it receives from the network (116) onto the first path (112) and the second path (114), each interface transferring optical signals to the network (116) it receives from the first path and the second path (column 2, lines 43-52); wherein the first path forms a closed continuous loop (112) and includes a first optical fiber; and wherein the second path forms a closed continuous loop (114) and includes a second optical fiber.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4-10 and 12-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art fails to disclose or reasonably suggest a method and an apparatus of a switch for directing optical signals in a telecommunications network comprising a chassis having slots in which the interfaces are held or in which the connectors are held if there is no interface as recited in claim 4; and wherein inserting a third interface into the first slot so it communicates with the first fiber and the second fiber as recited in claim 12.

Claims 5-10 and 13-16 are dependent on the objected claims 4 and 12 respectively.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Bowen et al. (U.S. Patent 4,874,218), Hardwick (U.S. Patent 5,069,521), Uemura et al. (U.S. Patent 6,434,288) and Boroditsky et al. (U.S. 2002/0085802) disclose an optical switch.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jennifer Doan whose telephone number is (571) 272-2346. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Thursday from 6:00 am to 3:30 pm, second Friday off.
